Pro Bono Publico!

IF YOU LOVE YOUR COUNTRY, encourage Home Productions. Why will you send abroad for wretchedly spurious articles, when you can have the good and true and beautiful of Oregon material and Oregon workmanship close at your very doors!

Why impoverish your country and its mechanics by the calculations of Prejudice, or by parsimonious misdirection?

The life-spring of trade, "READY CASH,"
No matter in which way we view it,

Northern Confederates Contradicted.

The charge is frequently made by Confederate Democrats in the North, that the election of Mr Lincoln caused the rebellion and the war. This false pretense was abundantly refuted by Judge Douglas, in one of the best speeches ever made by him, and over and over again, its fallacy has been exposed by the strongest and clearest proofs Indeed, the political records of the South are covered with evidence that the prominent leaders in the secession movement never pretended that the success of the Republican party was the cause of their rebellious action, but they have always insisted that it resulted from a deliberate purpose, long entertained, and fully ripe in their opinion, when they lost the exclusive control of the Democratic party, and managed to break it into fragments at Charleston. Surely, they are better and wiser witnesses than their sympathizers at the North, who love what is called Democracy better than the Government or the Union

The following are a few specimens of the frank declarations of these secession leaders, taken from the debates in the South Carolina Convention, which resolved that State out of the Union in December, 1860.

MR. PARKER—It appears to me, with great deference to the opinions that have been expressed, that the public mind is now fully made up to the great occasion that now awaits us It is no spasmodic effort that has come suddenly upon us, but it has been gradually culminating for a long series of years, until at last it has come to that point when we may say the matter is entirely right.

MR INGLIS—If there is any gentleman present who wishes to debate this matter, of course this body will hear him, but as to delay for the purpose of discussion, I, for one, am opposed to it As my friend (Mr. Parker) has said, most of us have had this matter under consideration for the last twenty years, and I presume we have by this time arrived at a decision.

MR. KEITT—We are performing a great act which involves not only the stirring present, but embraces the whole great future of ages to come I have been engaged in this movement ever since I entered political life I am content with what has been done to day, and content with what will take place to-morrow We have carried the body of this Union to its lasting place, and now we will drop the flag over its grave

MR. RHETT—The secession of South Carolina is not an event of a day IT IS NOT ANYTHING PRODUCED BY LINCOLN'S ELECTION, OR BY THE NON EXECUTION OF THE FUGITIVE SLAVE LAW. It has been a matter which has been gathering head for thirty years, and in the production of this great result the great men who have passed before us, whose great and patriotic efforts have signalized the times in which they lived, have not been lost Have the labors of Calhoun been forgotten, when he declared a few years ago for the secession of South Carolina? and that secession would be the consummation of their liberties?

REBEL PROPOSITION TO HANG "DUTCH" SOLDIERS.—The Knoxville (Tennessee) Register of June 12th contained the following atrocious article

Of late, in all battles and in all recent incursions made by Federal cavalry, we have found the great masses of Northern soldiers to consist of Dutchmen The plundering thieves captured by Forrest, who stole half the jewelry and watches in a dozen counties of Alabama, were immaculate Dutchmen. The national odor of Dutchmen, as distinctive of the race as that which constantly ascending to heaven, has distended the nostrils of the negro, is as unmistakable as that peculiar to a polecat, an old pipe or a lager beer saloon. Crimes, thefts, and insults to the women of the South, invariably mark the course of these stinking tribes of sourkraut Rosecrans himself is an unmixed Dutchman, an accursed race which has overrun the vast districts of the country of the Northwest

* * * * *

It happens that we entertain a greater degree of respect for an Ethiopian in the ranks of the Northern armies than for an odoriferous Dutchman, who can have no possible interest in this revolution Why not hang every Dutchman captured? We will hereafter hang, shoot or imprison for life all white men taken in command of negroes themselves. This is not too harsh No human being will assert the contrary Why, then, should we not hang a Dutchman, who deserves infinitely less of our sympathy than Sambo? The live masses of beer, krout tobacco and rotten cheese, which, on two legs and four (on foot and mounted) go prowling through the South, should be used to manure the sandy plains and barren hill sides of Alabama, Tennessee and Georgia * * * *

Whenever a Dutch regiment adorns the limbs of a Southern forest, daring cavalry raids in the South shall cease * * * President Davis need not be specially consulted, and if an accident of this sort should occur to a plundering band like that captured by Forrest, we are not inclined to believe that our President would be greatly disgusted.

Capt. J W Porter, formerly clerk in the quartermaster's department at Fort Dalles, and at present private secretary of Gov Wallace, of Idaho Territory, has received his commission as provost marshal for Washington Territory, with instructions to establish his headquarters at Fort Vancouver From our acquaintance with the captain we judge that he will make a popular and efficient officer.—Dalles Journal.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to August 4th.

FORTRESS MONROE, Aug 2.—Newbern, N C dates reach to the 1st The Raleigh Standard denounces Jeff Davis as a repudiator in whom no confidence can be placed and whose efforts to establish a Southern Confederacy will be a failure The Richmond Inquirer calls upon Davis to suppress the Standard and Supreme Court of N C The Standard replies that Gov Vance will stand by the Supreme Court and the Standard, and also if Davis attempts to use physical force to suppress the paper, he will be met by the same and revolution in the State will be the result The paper says that N C, has furnished 90,000 soldiers for a causeless war, 40 000 of whom have been killed or wounded, It urges that the State should send a delegation to Washington immediately to see what terms of peace can be obtained

A recent rebel raid from Norfolk to Jackson, N C, found the enemy strongly entrenched at the latter place, which commands the approach to Weldon

Buford's cavalry, and a supporting infantry force, crossed the Rappahannock at the R R Station, thence with cavalry and artillery Buford proceeded toward Culpepper driving Stewart's cavalry before him When near Culpepper Buford encountered a large force of infantry and artillery, a fierce fight ensued, lasting until dark, when he withdrew to Brandy Station—loss on both sides is considerable This reconnoissance confirms the concentration of Lee's forces near Culpepper, and indicates that his headquarters is at Strasburg, four miles south east of Culpepper.

Corps of infantry crossed Rappahannock, and are in position, to render Buford efficient support. According to statement of some intelligent prisoners, rebel force is so scattered watching our movements that no general engagement is eminent at present. Spies were arrested en route to Richmond, with maps of all the fortifications about Washington, on their persons

Port Royal letters say that Savannah is deserted of troops, 7,182 having been sent to relief of Vicksburg before our demonstration on Charleston.

Exemption of drafted men, by Surgeons' certificates in various posts of New England, since the commencement of Federal conscription, amount to the enormous proportion of 73 per cent., of the balance, 20 of the 27 per cent having fled to parts unknown, leaving net results of about 7 men out of every 100 drafted, who will be mustered into service

Boston papers say so numerous are exemptions in Boston, that the Government recently sent out one or more Inspectors to that city to ascertain if possible the cause of excessive debility prevailing there In the 1st District the number of conscripts who presented themselves to the Board of Enrollment on Tuesday, were 65, of whom 49 received exemption papers In the 3d District on the same day, 80 were presented and 63 of them exempted. Various cases in the 4th District were exempted by the Board, out of 140 120 were furnished with certificates of exemption

SAN FRANCISCO, August 3.—To-day's dispatches state that ten millions of legal tenders were converted into bonds during the last week.

The Orizaba carried away one million and sixty thousand dollars in treasure, and twenty-five passengers.

NEW YORK, August 3.—Drafting in the District of Columbia commenced to-day Much interest is felt and a large crowd is in attendance. The proceedings are remarkably quiet.

Money easy at 5@6 per cent Sterling 40½@41 Gold unsettled, opening at 27½ and closing at 28.

CAIRO, August 3.—A train of one hundred wagons, with a light escort of the 2d Missouri cavalry, encamped at White Water between Girardeau and Bloomfield on Saturday night, August 1st, During the night they were surrounded by guerrillas, the escort captured, and the wagons with their contents destroyed and the negro drivers carried off. Only two white men escaped

All quiet at Helena. A division of troops was arriving there from below, which would operate against Price, Holmes & Co

A Memphis letter says the prisoners paroled at Vicksburg and marched to parole camp, were deserting by hundreds, and the whole country was full of rebel cavalry picking them up.

NEW YORK, July 3.—Havana advices of the 25th, say a great fire broke out there on the 22d, and was still burning, but was confined to the ruins Sixteen large stores, the depot of the Gunnabacoa railroad, 600 bales of cotton belonging to secessionists and Englishmen, a large quantity of goods for running the blockade, and 68 000 boxes of sugar valued at a million and a quarter of dollars, were destroyed.

European Intelligence

NEW YORK, August 2.—Steamer American with dates from Southampton to July 22d, has arrived The Times says that the American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of Vicksburg, disappointment at the removal—owing to Lee's retreat—of a prospect of a termination of the war and satisfaction in contemplating England's wisdom (check) in not prematurely yielding a recognition of the Confederates

The Paris Constitutionnel says that Russia's reply on the Polish question is being examined by the three Powers, which positively intend to agree on means for settling the question definitely Paris journals consider Russia's reply unsatisfactory Russia admits six propositions, but rejects the armistice The suppression of the insurrection is necessary—amnesty offered in the meanwhile She is willing to accept the principle of the conference itself, but does not admit the right of all Powers who signed the final act of Vienna to participate in the conference, until England, France, Austria, Prussia and Russia had agreed.

Second Dispatch.

CHICAGO August 4th.—Dispatches dated Charleston, July 29th says Cummings Point was severely bombarded yesterday The Ironsides and two monitors were engaged. The bombardment lasted five hours, and was responded to by batteries Gregg, Wagner and Sumter No firing to day

LEAVENWORTH, Kansas, August 3d.—Two detachments of Kansas volunteers sent from different points to guard trains from Kansas City to Santa Fe in the latter part of July, came together beyond Westport, Mo, when each mistaking the other for the enemy, a battle ensued Before the mistake was discovered seven were killed and wounded

LOUISVILLE, August 4.—The election for State officers yesterday passed off quietly. Returns received indicate the election of Bramlette, Union over Wickliffe, Democrat, for Governor, by 20 000 majority.

NEW YORK August 4.—A special dispatch to the Times says it is again asserted by undoubted authority that the main body of Lee's army is encamped between Rapidan Station and Orange Court House It is positively known this was their position on Wednesday night last Lee's supplies had reached Gordonsville. Two divisions of Longstreet's corps occupied Culpepper

It is officially stated that the total number of Federal wounded in the three days' battle at Gettysburg, was about 14,000 and a fraction over 2 000 still remain at hospitals there.

A Spencerville, Va. dispatch dated August 1st, says the Fourth Pennsylvania cavalry were dispatched on a reconnoissance yesterday At Little Washington, twelve miles from here they encountered a company of rebel cavalry, 100 strong, and drove them through the town It is ascertained that a brigade of rebel cavalry is posted a short distance from that place Prisoners taken represent the rebel army in a desperate condition bitterly bewailing the error of the recent raid into Maryland and Pennsylvania

HALIFAX, August 3.—The steamer Arabia, with dates from Queenstown to the 26th, has arrived

An Anti Southern Association, formed in Manchester, counteracts the influence and corrects the misrepresentations of slaveholders of the Confederacy, and employ all means against the Confederacy

The Army and Navy Gazette of London says, that with Grant's army left free to co-operate with Rosecrans, there is no ground for speaking hopefully of the prospects of the Confederacy, unless Lee is able to reverse their misfortune by a great victory

In the House of Commons the subject of foreign enlistment was introduced by Mr Colden on the 22d He referred to the proceedings of the Alabama, Florida and Virginia, all built in English ports for Confederate service, and said it was well known that two iron clads were now being built in Liverpool for the same purpose He believed if they were allowed to leave England, the result would be the declaration of war on the part of the American Government He implored the Government to take steps to prevent the departure of vessels He was informed that the American Government had taken note of value of every vessel captured by privateers, and had debited the amount to Her Majesty's Government He further was informed that the American Minister had made a formal demand upon England to indemnify American ship owners for losses. Lord Palmerston defended the course which the Government had taken, and said he could see no distinction in principle in selling arms to Federals and selling ships to Confederates He appealed to the principle laid down on the subject by the Americans themselves It was true England had a law bearing on the question, and the Government had carried out that law to the best of her ability; and that law, which they saw no reason to alter to suit emergencies of a foreign power, they would continue to enforce as far as possible

Paris papers continue to evince strong feelings in regard to Polish questions

Hardee, stating that Gen Dick Taylor had an engagement with the enemy under Gen Banks—that he completely routed the enemy capturing 6,000 prisoners The Dispatch also publishes telegrams received from Weldon and Goldsboro', North Carolina, announcing that the Federal forces had been repulsed near Fort Branch or Jackson, on the Roanoke river, and had returned to Plymouth The same paper says that the bridge over Tar river, which was destroyed by the Yankees, has been rebuilt, and trains are running regularly

Thanksgiving Day at Ames' Chapel

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

The friends of the Union met on the 6th inst at Ames' Chapel camp ground, Washington county—Judge Mitchell President Patriotic and appropriate addresses were delivered by Elder Weston A. Kelly, and J W Burnum, after which the Union loving ladies spread the tables with an abundance of the good things of this life A contribution was then taken up for the just and benevolent Sanitary cause, amounting to eighty five dollars. It was pleasing to see the Sabbath school scholars, with smiling faces, eager to see who should give their quarters first. Harmony and good order prevailed, and no flag but the old flag waved high up over all There were, however, a few present on whom the Union spots seemed to be coming out, and to all human appearance they had become convalescent from a recent attack of sympathy with secession, and it is now hoped and believed that they will safely recover without being seriously marked

Terrific Bombardment of Fort Wagner

A correspondent of the New York Herald, writing from Morris Island, July 19th, says: Since the engagement on July 11th, General Gilmore has strained every nerve to strengthen his position on this Island. Another attack on the enemy's works was determined on for yesterday. The design was, to commence the bombardment at daylight, but on account of a terrific thunder storm the action did not commence until noon. At that hour the Montauk, Ironsides, Catskill, Nantucket, Weehawken and Patapsco moved into line within a mile of Fort Wagner and commenced hurling their heaviest shot and shell into the Fort. With intervals of but a few minutes they continued this terrible bombardment until an hour after sundown. Just after the close of the engagement and a few minutes before the assault, the Montauk ran directly under the guns of Wagner, and within three hundred yards, and fired several rounds, making one huge sandheap of that portion of the Fort facing the sea, and dismounting two of the heaviest guns. During all this time, fifty-four guns from our land batteries kept up a continuous fire on the rebel works. Although the Fort mounted thirteen rifled guns of heavy caliber, it condescended to reply with only two, one upon the whole fleet of iron clads, and one upon the entire line of batteries. They fired about one shot to our hundred, though that is rather over than under the estimate. For the assault General Strong was assigned to the command of the First Brigade, Col Putnam to the Second, and General Stevenson to the Third, constituting the reserve. Just as darkness began to fall, General Strong's brigade advanced to the assault. At the instant the line was seen slowly advancing toward the Fort, and before the double quick was ordered, a tremendous fire from the guns of Sumter, from the batteries on Cummings Point, and from all Wagner's guns, opened upon it. The guns from Wagner swept the beach, those from Sumter and Cummings Point enfiladed us. In the midst of this terrible fire the brigade reached the Fort, dashed through the ditches, gained the parapet, and engaged in a hand to hand fight. For nearly a half hour they held their ground, and did not fall back till nearly every commissioned officer was shot down. The First Brigade having failed, the Second made an attempt, advancing through the same terrible fire. Colonel Putnam led his men over into the Fort, and for an hour held half of it, fighting every moment and with utmost desperation, like the First Brigade. It was not until Putnam himself fell killed, and nearly all his officers wounded, and no reinforcements arriving, that his men fell back. The rebel shout of victory was heard above the roar of the guns of Sumter and Cummings Point.

The correspondents assign no reason for the failure of General Stevenson to come to the assistance of the assaulting column.

A Beaufort correspondent, under date of July 22d, states that prisoners taken say the rebel loss during the fight on Saturday, July 18th, was 300.

The following is an extract from a letter from an officer aboard the Chippewa, dated Charleston Harbor, July 19th: The work of the fleet yesterday was play compared with the charge made by the land forces in the face of a fire from Wagner and Sumter. If it had been made an hour earlier than it was, Wagner would now be ours. After they got into the Fort it was so dark, so those say who lived to get out again, that the rebels fired on rebels as well as Union men—Sumter killing as many rebels as it did of our men, and our batteries killing and wounding as many friends as foes. The carnage, for it cannot be called anything else, was awful. Our loss was from 700 to 1,000 killed, wounded and missing. The Fifty-fourth Massachusetts Regiment (colored) had all but six officers killed, wounded or captured. Our men were in the Fort for nearly two hours. It was nothing but confusion and darkness that obliged them to get out.

The Rebel Finances.—The Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser is not pleased with the financial policy of the rebel Secretary, Memminger. It declares that with "a smaller civil and military establishment than the North, and with a more economical administration of affairs, the expenses of the Confederate Government are more than double those of the United States. However we may deceive ourselves," it adds, "we cannot deceive the world in regard to these facts. The continuance of the war for two or three years longer will create a public debt the interest of which cannot be paid even at four per cent." And all this has been brought about, the Advertiser affirms, in conclusion, by Memminger and those like him, who by their foolish policy are draining the South of its very life blood, heedless of the plainest principles of political economy. Those people who indulge in chronic complaints of the large expenditures of the Federal Government necessary for the suppression of the rebellion will probably find in this statement of the rebel condition and policy a fresh evidence of what they are pleased to regard as the "superior sagacity," not only of the rebel treasury management, but of the entire war policy of the rebel administration.

Noble Brothers.—The London Times and Chattanooga Rebel are two great organs. Both disapprove of Vallandigham's arrest and trial. Of course such things must seem quite horrible to their virtuous hearts! Old England has never punished traitors. Of course not! We have never heard in this country of the Court of Star Chamber and the Tower of London. There never was such a man as Emmett, who was hanged for being a patriot! The history of England must be all a lie. Nobody ever was hanged in that land of freedom for stealing a shilling! Anything like tyranny or oppression must also grieve the righteous soul of the Chattanooga Rebel. It exists in a happy land where there are no dungeons or gallows for those who have a lingering fondness for the Stars and Stripes. The Libby and the Knoxville prisoners are entirely imaginary. In the blessed land of Dixie every man has the largest liberty of speech, to curse the Yankees and denounce the Government of the United States, with none to molest or make him afraid!

She has got her Rights.—The Louisville Journal says: The State of Mississippi was one of the most forward and violent in the accursed work of Secession. Verily she has her reward! Her cities and towns are lost to her, her public buildings and railroads are destroyed, her fields are ravaged and left bare, her people are on the verge of starvation, and her slaves, from causes having no connection with the Administration, are vanishing from her borders. She wanted Secession as a protection to her slavery and cotton, and she will soon have neither slavery nor cotton to protect.

D. W. Tisell, Esq., New York—Sir: As you well know, I had been afflicted with BRONCHITIS, accompanied with the most painful tightness of the chest and great difficulty in breathing for nearly two months, and I had almost lost all confidence in the power of medical agency, when at your friendly suggestion, I began the well known (but not enough known) EXPECTORANT of Dr. Jayne of Philadelphia. Three or four days after having commenced to take it, my cough had nearly subsided, the expectoration was easy, and the breathing quite free. I am now quite another man, and my general health has very much better.

CHERRY
FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

Brimfield, Mass., 20th Dec, 185[illegible]
Dr. J. C. Ayer: I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your Cherry Pectoral. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints.
EBEN KNIGHT, M. D.

A. B. Mortley, Esq., of Utica, N. Y., writes: "I have used your Pectoral myself and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.
[illegible]
Brother Ayer: I will cheerfully certify your Pectoral is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people.
HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

Amos Lee, Esq., Monterey, Ia., writes, 3d Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your Pectoral by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.
[illegible]
Sir: Your Cherry Pectoral is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years.
[illegible]

A. A. Ramsey, M. D., Albion, [illegible], writes, Sept. 6, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your Cherry Pectoral for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.
Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach, but even to those the Cherry Pectoral affords relief and comfort.

Astor House, New York City, March 5, 1856.
Doctor Ayer, Lowell: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your Cherry Pectoral has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well.
Yours, with gratitude and regard,
ORLANDO SHELBY, of Shelbyville.

Consumptives, do not despair till you have tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all around us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia Ledger.
